PRICE THREE CENTS

CHIMES IN THE TOWER

Bells Will Ring from Beautiful Structure Now Nearing Completion

Magnificent Shaft Will Be Finished by April 1, 1903

The crowning feature of the University of Chicago's scheme of architecture is the massive tower being erected near the corner of Fifty-seventh street and Lexington avenue. Now, although but partly constructed, it begins to show its wonderful proportions. When completed the height from the massive base to the slender weathervane at the top will be 138 feet and 8 inches. It stands with the new Commons on the west and the club-house on the east. Through its cloister, entrance is afforded to both buildings.

The Tower is almost an exact counterpart of the famous "Magdalen" Tower, on the campus of the University of Oxford, England.

The first three floors will be committee rooms. The fourth landing will contain the chimes. The entrance will be on the Fifty-seventh street side. Two sliding-doors open into the vestibule, which is to be elegantly furnished. The ceiling will be of wood.

The material used in the construction of the Tower is the very best. The stone is known as buff bedford. The windows will be panels of delicate stone tracery. On each side of the entrance are two carved canopies. The body of the Tower is wonderfully plain. At the top, like a beautiful crown, is what is known as the cap. It is made of carved stone, and at each corner rises a turret. The top is girded with rows of bosses, sometimes known as gargoyles.

The architects expect to have the Tower and the surrounding group of buildings completed by April 1, 1903.

FRESHMEN GROW NAUGHTY

Defy Sophs with Bold Proclamation Painted on Sidewalk

The freshies are exhibiting signs of nerve. An announcement to this effect was posted last night in black paint upon the sidewalk between Cobb and Kent:

'05 BEWARE OF '06

Is this a challenge, or what is it? The sophomores say they are going to investigate.

Y. M. C. A. HOUSEWARMING A SUCCESS

More Than a Hundred Guests were Entertained in Snell Hall Last Night

The informal reception given last evening to the men of the University by the Young Men's Christian Association was well attended. Over a hundred men gathered in the club room of the Association House, Snell Hall.

A. R. Hatton, the new head, entered into the festivities with the men spiritedly.

Cocoa and wafers were served for refreshments. H. J. Lurie, with H. B. Street, as piano accompanist, rendered several violin solos, which were well received. With E. D. Baker for pianist a number of the men gathered about the piano and sang college, and "old familiar," songs. Some amusing "stunts" were tried by the crowd, every one taking part with a zest.

The lion on Mandel Assembly Hall weighs two tons.

MANDOLIN CLUB PICKED

Leader Sulcer Chooses Twenty-One Men to Assist Him—A Christmas Trip Planned

The trials of the Mandolin Club were concluded yesterday. Leader Sulcer picked the following men: First mandolins—Forest G. Smith, Edward G. Woods, Eugene V. Beifeld, Hollis E. Potter, and F. D. Dapprich. Second mandolins—Dudley K. French, Nichols, Milton Wilson, Lewis W. Raper, Gene Meyer, E. D. F. Butterfield, W. H. Hatfield, Jr., P. P. Pritchard, Edward R. Cornell. Guitars—S. George Levy, Frank R. Adams, Wilbur C. Harris, F. S. Lovewell, F. S. Clark. Flute—Lynne Bevan. Violin—Harry J. Lurie.

The violin and 'cello trials were not completed. Players of these instruments should arrange with Sulcer for a trial.

Plans for a Christmas trip were discussed, and it was hinted that a new financial system would be used. The manager of the club will neither receive all the profit nor be responsible for all the loss. The members of the club will share gain or loss. The most probable candidate for manager will be Forest G. Smith, the president of the combined musical clubs.

OUR PREXY ON THE LINKS.

Lays Aside University Cares for Recreation at Homewood Golf Club

For Prexy's a jolly good fellow,
For Prexy's a jolly good fellow,
For Prexy's a jolly good fellow,
Which nobody can deny.

This was a refrain which the class of '02 improvised at a social gathering where President Harper made things interesting for the seniors last year.

Now to the University of Chicago students, Prexy has shown, notwithstanding the million affairs of his busy executive life, he has another interest in common with many of the students. Dr. Harper now plays golf.

The president has, within the last few days, joined the Homewood Club, which is south of the Midway, near 100th st., at Flossmoor. The links of the club are its most important feature, and occasionally students from the University meet the Prexy there playing the game.

The dean of the university, Dr. Judson, whose duties are in large part those of a vice-president, is the Prexy's opponent in match play. Not only "Juddy," as the Grads affectionately call Dean Judson, but Professor Carpenter, of the English department, has joined the Homewood club.

A '06 man who plays at Homewood today, in telling the club's acquisition, said: "As far as the game goes, the Prexy still has some points to master. But he goes at it with great force, and ought to make a star player."

A large number of the members of the faculty play golf. Mr. Rockefeller, Sr., the founder, who is credited with being a man of simple habits, takes delight in this means of recreation. When he visited the university for the Decennial celebration last year, Martin A. Ryerson, the president of the board of trustees, entertained him at golf on the course at Lake Geneva, while Mr. Rockefeller was in that vicinity for a visit to Yerkes Observatory.

Late Registration Fees Due

The statement in our notice columns yesterday to the effect that registration is open without extra fee during this week was incorrect.

NEW CURIOS FOR MUSEUM

Alfred W. Place Sends Novel Collection of Palestinian Agricultural Implements to University

The Haskell Oriental Museum has just received through the kindness of Alfred W. Place, a novel collection of Palestinian agricultural utensils and implements. While in the Holy Land with Professor Shailer Matthews's travel class in the winter of 1902, Mr. Place collected these objects and shipped them to the museum. They arrived last week and have just been unpacked and put in place in the North Museum.

The principal object is a rude plow, with a heavy wooden bar-yoke, and the rough single handle usual in Palestine plows. Two long ox-goads accompany this curious and clumsy contrivance. Wooden pitchforks, winnowing forks and clubs, and a wooden synagogue oil lamp are among Mr. Place's finds.

More interest attaches to a stone hand-mill for grinding grain. A flat stone, circular in shape, is made to revolve upon another, the grain being poured in at the center of the topstone, and drifting out in a coarse flour at the edges of the stones. Like the plow, the mill is in good working order. Just such mills were in use in the Holy Land in the time of Christ and for centuries before. They are still seen everywhere among the people there, two women often grinding together at the same mill.

Mr. Place was well known, at the University and throughout Western athletic circles, playing center field on the University nine, half back on the eleven, and winning a "C" for his proficiency in various field events.

TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

Opening Matches of Tournament this Week—New Caps for Tennis Men

All students in the University who have any aspirations for tennis honors are to be given an excellent opportunity of showing their mettle this week.

Mr. Bingham, captain of the team, has announced that the first match of the University championship tournament will be played Friday afternoon of this week on the campus courts. Great interest is centered in this fall contest. We have a large number of men here this quarter who are skilled in the game, and if they will all come out the tournament is certain to be very close and exciting.

This contest is for both singles and doubles, and it is earnestly hoped that all tennis men of ability in college, will turn out. The men who show skill at the game now will stand in the front ranks of candidates for the 1903 team which is to represent us in the Western Intercollegiate in the spring. In addition to gaining a prominent position on the list of promising candidates, the victorious man will be able to write the enviable title, "University of Chicago Tennis Champion," after his name.

All students wishing to enter the lists must hand in their names and addresses, together with 25 cents to cover expenses, at the Faculty Exchange, care of Captain Bingham, before 9:30 A.M. on Friday, October 10.

The tennis caps which Mr. Stagg is having made for the members of the teams are another new feature of the athletic work. Bingham is as yet the only man who has one. The caps are very effective, the body being of blue, with two narrow rackets crossed in front, surrounding a maroon U. C. Anyone who wins a match in an intercollegiate tournament will be entitled to a cap.

CORNELL COLLEGE TODAY

Scrub Team Goes to Peoria to Play Peoria High School

Football Picture Tomorrow Afternoon
—Full Squad Wanted

The varsity plays Cornell College of Mount Vernon, Iowa, this afternoon on Marshall Field at 3:30. The strength of the Cornell team is not known here, but an interesting game is expected. Cornell is a good-sized college and should have material for a good team.

Former Governor Shaw of Iowa, who is now secretary of the treasury, is a graduate of Cornell. He worked his way through college by selling fruit trees. When he became a candidate for governor all the Cornell alumni in the state worked in his interests. This was an important factor in procuring him the nomination. The college has quite a reputation, a good number of students and probably many candidates for the team.

We should, however, win easily, it being only a matter of the size of our score, and whether they will score on us or not. Lundgren, captain of the Illinois team last year, is their coach.

As the game is not expected to be a very hard one, several of the men will be saved for the Purdue game Saturday. Terry will take Koehler's place at tackle. Koehler stood a great deal of punishment in the Knox game and is not in very good shape. Wightman has a slight injury on his leg which he must take care of. Catlin or Perkins will take Wightman's place at full. Ellsworth will play center. Ahlsweide left guard, R. Maxwell right guard, Farr tackle, L. Maxwell quarter back, Speik left end, and Captain Sheldon left half back. Bezdek and Jennison will play right half. Oliver and Conrad will be given a chance at end and Buckley at guard.

Last evening Director Stagg inaugurated indoor practice in the evening. In the basement of Hitchcock last night he put the team through a half-hour of practice. Part of the time was spent in learning the new signals to be used in today's game. Mr. Stagg also gave the team a thorough quiz in the rules, so that there could be no mistakes or misunderstandings. This evening practice is to be continued.

Secret practice was continued yesterday and judging from the anatomy windows the work was not of the best sort possible. Mr. Stagg sent the men after the tackling dummy again and so far as the sawdust man was concerned the tackling was satisfactory. But when the "old man" directed them to go down the field after punts and "nail" the man with the ball their preliminary practice proved of little benefit to them. "Jimmie," Maxwell, Wrightman, and Catlin had an off day in catching punts, and Schumm seemed to be the only one who could perform the feat consistently. The Chicago dailies have almost always given our men the reputation of being bad [Continued on page 3]

EDITORIALS

It is desired that everyone contribute to the department headed "Gargoylettes." Contributions should be in the form of short editorial paragraphs, bright remarks and bits of verse which are not ambitious enough to be classed as literature.

Chicago is to debate with Michigan. Michigan is a large university and has always turned out a strong debating team — a team which has, in fact, when pitted against Chicago, several times received the judges' votes. We cannot afford to have this happen again. But the only way to assure a victory is for Chicago to debate.

Every man and woman in the University should debate. Perhaps you cannot talk "on the floor," but you can at least offer arguments, pro and con, on the question. Those who can do any of the actual debating should, without fail, attend the meeting at 10:30 tomorrow.

Laws! You men who have had experience in debates, we need the aid of all of you. The coming Law is needed also. He wants practice in such work, and the University wants to give him this practice.

Divinities! You who are to make public addresses your life-work, we need your active support.

Undergraduates! You who are interested in the University activities for the sake of the activities themselves, we must have your attendance and support. We hope to see every member of last year's Freshman's Debating Society. Put the results of your year's training into active practice that will count for the University of Chicago.

It is one of the greatest honors the student-body has to offer, this place on the intercollegiate debating team. In Harvard the men get the crimson H when they make the team.

Let us make our team as invincible as the Harvard debaters have usually proven themselves and it may then have at this institution the added dignity of a letter.

Remember Thursday at 10:30.

There are eighteen pinnacles on the commons.

NEWS FROM THE UNIVERSITIES

Michigan's golf team, which is to play in the intercollegiate golf contest between Michigan and Chicago, to be held in Ann Arbor Oct. 24 and 25, is to be selected about Oct. 15.

Adrian College has announced that it will dispense with the services of fraternities and sororities. The members of the Alpha Tau Omega and Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternities, and Kappa Kappa Gamma and Delta Delta Delta sororities there, threaten to leave the college unless the decree is withdrawn.

1904 Engineers of Michigan decided by a vote of 41 to 36 to separate from the literary department and form a permanent class organization of their own.

Wisconsin money is seeking odds of 5 to 2 on the game with Michigan Nov. 1.

Trainer Conibear gave the Illinois track team candidates a preliminary try-out last Saturday.

About fifty men are out daily trying for Michigan's cross-country club.

At last Chicago University has a daily paper. THE DAILY MAROON appeared last week and is a credit to its editors and to the University. With Old Rip we say, "May you live long and prosper." — The Michigan Daily News.

COMMUNICATIONS

6054 KIMBARK AVE.

To the Editor of The Daily Maroon:

I am sorry that Mr. Jenkin Lloyd Jones' sermon of last Sunday on Segregation has been half-quoted with such an unfortunate misinterpretation.

Mr. Jones did say that our colleges today were "menaced with an excess of manliness—not manliness—of boisterousness and rowdyism; spoke of "youths who graduate from college nowadays, skilled smokers, expert banqueters, familiar with the convivialities, etc.," and said that "among this particular element opposition to co-education would naturally be expected, for the reason that women would be a chill upon their college life."

Then Mr. Jones went on to say that the remedy for all this lay "not in the exclusion of women but in the increase of intellectual sobriety, in a subordination of brawn to brain," in less society and more culture, in new standards of earnestness, of dignity, of simplicity in dress, diet and decorum," in all of which, "the standards of the University of Chicago are higher today than those of the one-sex colleges in the country."

I quote freely and from memory but the logical sequence is correct. Having listened to the sermon, which was a fair and just statement, I was amazed at the resentment which it created in the University, until shown an extract of it in one of Monday morning's papers which, read alone, apart from the rest of the sermon, might be construed as a reflection upon the men at present in the University—which Mr. Jones did not intend. "GRAD" IS ALMOST DESERTED

Hitchcock Draws Many of Its Men—Once Most Popular "Dorm" Now Only Partly Filled

"Grad" Hall has, until this year, been one of the most popular of the dormitories. With the opening of Hitchcock, however, the hall has been partly deserted.

Mr. Davenport, the head, states that he has no very definite idea of the number of students now housed there. He admits the dormitory is far from full, assigning no cause for this state of affairs.

From their experiences, up to date, the editors of THE DAILY MAROON have learned that in publishing an afternoon paper it is necessary for everybody connected with the paper, editors, hustlers, and contributors to join in, literally, rushing copy to the composing-room.

fumblers but before the season is over we will undoubtedly have a set of backs that will prove quite the contrary. Lack of practice probably causes fumbling of punts and the offense can be soon doctored up by our coaches. Tomorrow afternoon, Thursday, at 3:30 p. m., a football picture will be taken of all the first, second, or third teams and others who have been out this fall. This picture will be run in THE DAILY MAROON with a write-up of each individual in the picture. It is hoped that every man who has been out with the squad at any time this fall will come out and get into the picture. It is the desire of the editors to aid the student body in becoming acquainted with our men, and also wish to use this picture as a means of helping the men feel that they belong to us, that in the games they are not competing for themselves but for the University.

Coach Best is giving the Purdue squad foot-ball practice behind barred gates. Secrecy pervades all the movements of the team. The condition of the men and their positions for the game here Saturday are also unknown.

Jimmie Henry, our old player, who is coaching De Pauw, says that the Purdue team this year is much stronger than the one which met our eleven last year.

for the third team. It has not yet been decided which team is the second team or which the third team, but a very large scrub schedule has been arranged, part of the games to be played by one team and part by the other. On some days there will be two scrub games. On October 11 there will be games with Morgan Park, and with Racine College at Racine; and on November 8, with St. Ignatius College and Naperville at Naperville. Manager Butterworth is trying to arrange games on all open Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Walter Jones, a new botany student who with nine others was sent by the Canadian government to study at the Varsity, has joined Stagg's squad. He played association foot-ball at Prince Edward Island, and was a member of the All-Canada team.

Not since the fall of '97 has Mr. Stagg put the tackling dummy in operation. Yesterday the device intended to create sure open-field tackling was strung up just south of the practice field and the men were put through several rounds of "embracing the boy."

The spectators, who had to content themselves with perching up in the Anatomy Building to see the secret practice, enjoyed the sport to such an extent that the janitor was forced to put a ban on their noisy actions. The football men, on the contrary, took a very different attitude, and the last round was greatly welcomed.

Mr. Stagg explained the correct and the incorrect way of tackling, and as a result the men brought the dummy down in much better fashion toward the end of the practice. Judging from the work yesterday our team will be strong in tackling before the season closes.

The tackling dummy used is an invention of "Mike" Murphy, Yale's famous trainer. The dummy proper is held up by a rope attached to a pulley which slides along a rope. Two uprights, about eighteen feet apart, are the stays to which the rope is attached. Overhead is a cross piece. The dummy which, by the way, is the exact shape of a man minus a head, is so arranged that the form can be moved sideways and up and down. This, together with the immense weight of the "boy," serves as a very important device for open tackling.

MAJORS and MINORS

The old members of Nancy Foster Hall will give a party for the new girls on next Friday evening.

Question—When the new law building goes up, where will the girls' Quadrangle be?

Miss Davida Harper is taking graduate work in the School of Education.

Frank C. Lovell, '05, is cashier in a bank in Chatfield, Minn.

The Phi Delta Theta fraternity gave a smoker at the chapter house last evening.

Miss Corinne Calhoun, well known in University society circles, is to be married this evening to William Holder Grey, an eastern college man.

An event of very great interest to the older set of Chicago men and women, is the coming wedding of Miss Theodosia Kane and Mr. Van Doozer, which is set for Thursday, Oct. 16. Miss Kane is a Quadrangle. Jesse P. Van Doozer is a hero of the gridiron, having played a star game on Northwestern's championship team of '95. Mr. Van Doozer is a Sigma Chi.

We are to have a paved street for the southern boundary of our great campus. A new asphalt road is in process of construction at the present time between Ellis and Lexington avenues, on Fifty-ninth street. The curbs are already done, and it will not be many days before automobiles will be whizzing by the windows of our woman's hall.

ACADEMY ITEMS

Owing to the injuries of several players, North Division High School cancelled the game with Morgan Park, today.

Dunn, a heavyweight, formerly of Woodward High School, is expected to play South Side Academy against High School.

Coach Lowenthal of Morgan Park had thirty men in uniform yesterday. During the hard scrimmage Capt. Cobb assisted him.

Morgan Park is having hard practice this week in preparation for the game with the Varsity scrubs, Oct. 11. This is considered the biggest game of the season.

Harry Dow, who played quarter-back on the South Side Academy second team last year, is this year the manager of the Northwestern Academy second team.

This morning, Griffin, a promising candidate for tackle on the S. S. A. team, tried to board a Cottage Grove car while in motion. He was struck on the shoulder and thrown a distance of ten feet. The team will be deprived of his services for a few days.
