SEPARATE INSTRUCTION PLAN ADOPTED

Trustees Accept Proposition for Evolution of Co-Education in Junior Colleges

PRESIDENT HARPER'S MEASURE

Alumnae and Good-Sized Minority of Faculty Oppose Change in Co-Instruction

The Board of Trustees met yesterday afternoon and decided the much-talked of question of separate instruction, or segregation. The meeting was called at 3 o'clock in the down-town offices of the University in the Merchants' Board and Trust building. Sixteen of the trustees answered to the roll call. Formal discussions were put aside and the main question at issue was immediately taken up. When the first ballot was taken upon the plan of segregation it stood 13 for and 3 against.

While this action does not mean that co-education has received a death blow, it does mean that hereafter the men and women students of the lower college will not intermingle in lecture-rooms, college halls, and laboratories. It does not mean, however, that the pleasant social functions, which have been a feature of our college life, will be done away with. It will mean that lower class men and women will be relieved of the jostle and crush which is now a feature of Cobb Hall.

Chicago is the first big co-educational school to take this position. The scheme is one of our president, and upon him rests the responsibility of its success. As a result of our new departure Chicago will have added interest for the outside educational world.

This action does not mean that the plan of co-education will be done away with. It means that the men and women students will have all the advantages of a school for men, a school for women, and in the last two years of their college life a school where co-education has reached its highest stage of development. The plan provides that when the senior college is reached the men and women will again meet in the same class rooms, lecture halls and laboratories. Thus, at a mature age, they will receive the benefits of the unmodified co-education.

Already some steps toward carrying out the principles of the plan have been taken. Since the action of the Junior College faculty last year the Junior College men have attended chapel and division meeting in one place while the Junior College women have attended their chapel and division meeting in another.

The working out of the new plan will take time to reach a degree of perfection. In a few weeks President Harper will present a more detailed plan of his scheme. This report will make clear the proposition, which is at present misunderstood by many. The question as to when the new scheme will go into effect and when the new quadrangles will be constructed, will also be stated in this report of the president. When the plan does go into effect it will be in so gradual a manner, that it will scarcely be noticeable.

The official statement given out last evening from the president's office is as follows:

The trustees voted to approve the action of the Junior College faculty recommended by the senate. This action reads as follows:

"That in the development of the junior college instruction provision be made as far as possible for separate sections for men and women."

The president of the University was requested to formulate a plan for the practical administration of the new policy.

The trustees also authorized the president to prepare a statement of the proposed action of the University of Chicago in reference to provision for separate instruction for men and women. This statement will cover the following points:

1. The proposition.
2. What the proposition does not involve.
3. What the proposition does actually involve.
4. The proposition considered historically.
5. The proposition considered from the point of view of administration.
6. The proposition considered financially.
7. The proposition considered from the point of view of architectural plans.
8. The proposition considered from the social and pedagogical point of view.
9. The proposition considered in its relation to the charter of the University.
10. The proposition considered in relation to other institutions and the general public.

Of the 21 members of the board 16 were present at the meeting, of these 13 voted in favor of the proposition, 3 against it. Of the five members not present two sent a letter stating that if present they would vote in favor of the proposition. Of the other three two are known to be in favor of the proposition.

OPPOSITION TO PLAN

Some of the opponents of the separate instruction plan who make particularly fine points have taken the ground that the University charter forbids this evolution in coeducation. The charter reads that the University of Chicago is to be an institution for affording higher education to men and women on equal terms. Emphasis is laid upon the words "on equal terms." The attorneys for the University have looked up the point most carefully. Their conclusion is that if the same courses, the same diplomas, the same instructors or instructors of equal power, and buildings and equipment with the same facilities are provided for the women's college and the men's college, the provisions of the charter will be fully met.

In the list of arguments for the proposed plan, those made by some advocates conflict with points made by others.

Some of the arguments made in the various faculty meetings have been as follows:

1. Boys will not endure rivalry with girls, who always beat them, consequently many do not work at all.
2. Impossible to use sufficient severity with girls in class to produce best results.
3. Impossible to treat boys and girls in same way, regardless of mere question of severity, therefore great advantage to both in separation.
4. Tendency toward more crowding and physical contact in halls of Cobb. Asserted same result in any building for both sexes, coarsening social-effect of present co-educational regime.
5. Monopolizing of corridors, stairs, and grounds by girls.
6. Asserted preference of many boys and girls for separation.
7. Development of more intimate comradeship among men and women, respectively. Better type of social life.
8. Development thus of better college spirit.
9. Combination under proposed plan of all advantages of both men's and women's colleges.
10. Prevention of otherwise inevitable feminization of undergraduate body.
11. Increase of number of men under this stimulus.
12. Decrease in number of women under influence of this restraining action.
13. Increase in number of women for same reason, e.g.; women who would otherwise go to women's colleges.
14. Practically a blow at coeducation. Influence slowly but surely in favor of return to old system of separate instruction.
15. Step in advance toward firm establishment of enlightened form of education. All the blessings and none of the vices.

STAND OF ALUMNAE

The alumnae of the University are opposed to the plan, and, aided by the general collegiate alumnae organization in the city, have carried on a campaign against its adoption. The foregoing list of arguments was sent out in a letter signed by Miss Angelina Loesch, '98, recording secretary of the 1902-3 Chicago Branch Association of Collegiate Alumnae, and

WILL ATTEND INSTALLATION

President Harper, Sorry to Miss Illinois Game, With Professor Laughlin, Goes to Inauguration of Woodrow Wilson

President Harper and Prof. J. Lawrence Laughlin left for the East this morning, where they will take part in the formal inauguration of Woodrow Wilson as president of Princeton University, Saturday.

The installation of Princeton's new head will be marked by distinguished ceremonies, and the gathering will be attended by educational leaders from every section of the country. President Harper will not make an address.

Prexy is sorry that he will not be able to be with the team through the game with the Illini on Marshall Field Saturday. Before leaving this morning he said to a reporter for THE DAILY MAROON: "I don't believe we realize how important this game is. I am very sorry to miss it indeed."

ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE

Hon. David J. Hill Will Deliver Two Lectures to Students in Near Future

Hon. David J. Hill, assistant secretary of state, has consented to give two lectures before the College of Commerce and Administration in the near future.

Mr. Hill's subjects will be: "The Study of Diplomacy," and "The Consular Service of the United States."

Holding as he does a most important position in the state department, Mr. Hill is in a position to enlighten the students of commerce and administration with highly instructive discussions.

FRESHMAN CLASS ORGANIZED

Remainder of Officers Elected at a Meeting in Kent This Morning

The freshman class elected the remainder of its officers at 10:30 this morning. The following are now the '06 officials:

Barrett Andrews.....President
Mark Catlin.....Vice-President
Miss L. Stevenson.....Secretary
Hubert Ellsworth.....Treasurer

The president will appoint a committee of five to draft a constitution for the class.

WILL BE THE UNIVERSITY'S GUEST

James H. Hyde, President of the Alliance Francaise, Accepts Board of Trustees' Invitation

James H. Hyde, president of the United States Federation of the Alliance Francaise, will be the guest of the University from November 5 to 7. He will come here as a result of the invitation which Professor Frigie took to New York in behalf of the board of trustees.

Mr. Hyde is the first vice-president of the Equitable Life Insurance Company of New York. He has made the advancement of the French language in the United States his great work. He has established two exchange fellowships in Columbia, whereby two Columbia men are sent to France each year and two French students are given tuition in Columbia. Last week Mr. Hyde was made overseer of the French department at Harvard.

The golf devotees who compose the team with which Michigan hopes to defeat our representatives are:

ILLINOIS IS CONFIDENT

State University Team Strongest in Years—Coaches Predict Victory Saturday

Parry Takes "Big" Maxwell's Place at Right Guard in Practice

The University of Illinois team is coming to give battle with our Varsity next Saturday, and from personal reports from Champaign the Illini evidently think they have something up their sleeve. We are expecting a strong, fast team and have no doubt but that such a team will come.

Harry Coffeen, one of Illinois' old-time players who has been coaching the team this week, says:

Illinois has the best line that ever represented the university. Stahl and Rothgeb are two of the best tackles that we ever had. I believe that they are superior to the famous Von Oven-Sweeny combination in '97. As for our half-backs, they are much better than usual. Bronson is a wonder, Cook can rest on his laurels, and as for Beebe—wait until Saturday.

An analysis of the team's good qualities and weak points, from an unprejudiced standpoint, certainly shows a remarkably strong and aggressive offense and a defense that has been underestimated. The showing which the Illini made against the Purdue team and the Haskell Indians has given us some line on the team, and the comparative scores seem to show a team of practically the same strength as Chicago. Although Purdue scored upon Illinois and was not able to do so at Chicago, it was only through a place kick and does not reflect at all upon the defense of the orange and purple.

Probably every one who went to the Chicago-Illinois game last year remembers very well how the giant, "Jake" Stahl, tore up the Chicago lines for long gains every time he took the ball. While Stahl is probably the best player on the team, he has a worthy teammate in Rothgeb, a sophomore who made his first appearance in the Illinois-Michigan game on Marshall Field in 1900. With another man on the field to make as much trouble as Stahl we may expect a lively time.

Trainer Connibear, formerly trainer at Chicago, has the team under his care and they are all in excellent shape. The game with Chicago is the game of the year for the University of Illinois, and the whole state watches the outcome of this battle between her two greatest universities with greatest interest.

The scores in the Illinois series of victories so far this year are as follows:

Illinois, 34; North Division H. S., 6.
Illinois, 45; Englewood H. S., 0.
Illinois, 22; Still Osteopaths, 0.
Illinois, 33; Monmouth College, 0.
Illinois, 24; Haskell Indians, 10.
Illinois, 44; Washington University, 0.
Illinois, 29; Purdue University, 5.

In yesterday's secret practice Mr. Stagg spent most of the time in developing the offense. His new inventions in the way of formations, together with the whoa-back plays, were used to great advantage. The men got together in excellent shape and the old man seemed on the whole pleased with the work of the boys in practice. A feature of the drill yesterday was a change in the regulars' line-up.

"Big" Maxwell, who is considered one of the strongest guards we have ever had, was relegated to the scrubs, and Parry took his place. Maxwell has evidently been taking a loaf, and it seems now as if he will be kept on the side lines Saturday. It may be

EDITORIALS

"The University of Chicago is a great experiment station." This is important a statement often made. As an leaders in the educational experiment advance of the nation, not only in the West but in the East, look upon the University in this light. Last June the convocation orator, the president of a well-known eastern technological school, declared that our University is the great laboratory of modern education. And the public, at least the western public says, in its vernacular, "the University on the Midway is a place where things are doing."

The University has undertaken a new experiment. Yesterday the University trustees, with but three dissenting members, voted to inaugurate separate instruction for men and women in the junior college. It was only after long-continued and comprehensive consideration of this subject by the various faculty bodies that the question went before the board. Like conservative business men the trustees took their time. As a result the University is about to undertake its most far-reaching educational and social experiment.

Sometimes, as undergraduates, we feel that it is tradition which makes college life and university life. In some colleges and universities this is true, and we might at first be inclined to think that any change in conditions, any experiment, would break up the college life we have. But in general at the U. of C. one of the fascinating factors of the student life is contact with the current of new ideas, which flows more swiftly, even if more turbulently, here than elsewhere.

Specifically in the experiment we would not be so presumptuous as to make a prediction on the result in reference to pedagogy. Though we might call attention to the success which has attended the success of our president's experiments. But, as to the effect on student life, there can be no question. With two unified and co-equal undergraduate groups, a college for men and a college for women, there will be a definite and apparent addition to the undergraduate life. Here, in a setting of university life, in the university atmosphere, we are to have genuine college life—college life for men, and college life for women, for two years.

Many in the University community have bitterly opposed the innovation. Philosophers of education among the men of the faculty, all of the women faculty members, the alumnae, a large number of the undergraduate women, and some of the men students have expressed opposition. All feel sure of the desired equal opportunities for women and men under the scheme of co-instruction, as the separate instruction advocates now call old-fashioned coeducation. They hesitate before experimenting.

However, there is no doubt that every member of the faculty has the scientific attitude, and will await results. And it seems reasonable to predict that the students will not follow some prep-school tactics in physical laboratory experiments. They will not upset the apparatus. In fact, as one of the women faculty members said last evening, all—faculty and students—will probably unite in helping to make the conditions perfect for this great experiment.

NEWS FROM THE UNIVERSITIES

Minnesota students and players are much aroused over the unfair criticisms made of their coach, Dr. Williams, by some of the Minneapolis papers.

Hiawatha, up to date, runs as follows:

He killed the noble Mudjokivis,
With the skin he made him mittens;
Made them with the fur side inside,
Made them with the skin-side outside.
He, to get the cold side outside,
Put the inside skin-side outside,
He, to get the cold side outside,
Put the warm side, fur side, inside;
That's why he put the fur side inside,
Why he put the skin-side outside,
Why he turned them inside outside.

Punts From the Bleachers

that the old man has decided to put a lighter and faster line in the field Saturday to offset the Illini's fast play.

Parry is somewhat faster than Maxwell, though he is considered more inexperienced. However, as the ex-Oskaloosite has been putting up some foxy work with the scrubs, we ought not to have any grave fears about the substitution.

Otherwise the line-up remains the same as in Monday's practice. Sheldon, Ivison, Perkins, Wightman, Catlin, Speik, are the ones whom we will have to rely on mostly to advance the ball Saturday. Bezdek is out of it for Saturday.

Yesterday Stagg was told that some of his protégés were playing cards in one of the rooms of the training-quarters. Stagg sent one of the rubbers to stop the play. He found a group playing "cinch," but nevertheless stopped the game.

The practice at Illinois yesterday was a hard and fast one. Bundy is playing the best game of his life this year, and his friends expect him to play "Big" Maxwell off his feet. The Varsity scored four touchdowns against the scrubs. The team is in fine shape, and the hospital list still diminishing.

ACADEMY ITEMS

East Aurora High School was scheduled to play Morgan Park Academy Wednesday, but the high school boys canceled the game.

Dean Owen's family, of S. S. A., has returned from Europe, where they have spent over three years. The greater part of the time they lived at Berlin and Paris.

The students of the South Side Academy are taking daily practice in the singing of new and popular college songs. The music department of the academy is under the supervision of Mr. Frampton.

The Cleveland University School has challenged Morgan Park for a football game. The challenge has not as yet been acted upon. Last fall the two teams met at Cleveland and the result was a score of 0-0. This spring the Cleveland team came West and met Morgan Park on the diamond. Morgan Park won—18-0. Morgan Park is anxious to continue the athletic relations with the eastern school, and if the financial part of the enterprise can be arranged the team will probably go East this fall.

RUSH MEDIC NOTES

The medical students' hours are so taken up with laboratory work that the Biological Library in the Zoology Building is open from 7:00-10:00 in the evening.

The Rush football team goes to Princeton Friday to play the strong team of the Princeton Athletic Association. The Princeton team is a heavy and a well-coached team, but Captain McClure feels confident that Rush will have no trouble in winning. As this is Princeton's "big game," they are making every effort to have their team in the best of condition.

The '05 social committee, composed of Messrs. Oliver, Fitzhenry, Brown and Misses Little and Stacy, met this morning and selected Mr. Oliver as chairman. The committee will do its utmost to interest the medical students in the social functions of the University. The lack of interest shown last year was due to the fact that the men were new at the University. This year they feel that they are a part of this great University and are expressing their desire to participate in the social functions and other activities of the institution. The freshmen are urged to organize their class and cooperate in these matters.

The Senior election was continued at yesterday's meeting at 3 P. M. in the lower amphitheater at the call of President J. B. Ury, and the following officers were elected, in a quiet, peaceable way, which was in striking contrast to the past two stormy sessions:

First Vice-President—D. H. Palmer.

Second Vice-President—J. E. Derbyshire.

Third Vice-President—O. A. McIntosh.

Treasurer—W. R. Calderwood.

Recording Secretary—L. M. Baldwin.

Assistant Recording Secretary—J. W. Dreyer.

Class Poet—W. J. Anderson.

Class Prophet—C. E. Scullin.

Valedictorian—J. B. Robb.

Class Orator—C. B. Davis.

Chorister—O. O. Zelenzy.

Chaplain—L. E. Newcomer.

Sergeant-at-Arms—H. A. Kernan.

The segregation plan is a question on which various opinions are held, but Brown, King & Co., of Wabash ave. and Madison st., have a plan to segregate any man in college from $12, and in return they give the best style rain coat to be had in Chicago.

Reports from Champaign say that Illinois will attend the game here next Saturday more than 1,000 strong.

"I have sent 500 $2 tickets down to Champaign already," said Manager Butterworth this morning. "Huff has asked for more, and we will probably reserve several hundred more seats. Special excursions will be run from Champaign and several intermediate points on Saturday morning. The fare is $2 for the round trip."

* * *

Perhaps one of the least appreciated group of students in the University is the Varsity scrub football team. This team is made up of men who go out on the field every night for the purpose of being hammered and battered to pieces by the Varsity. And while we hear of the great feats of strength and nerve which the Varsity men perform, we never hear very much about the scrubs, notwithstanding their brilliant work against the Varsity at times. It is the scrubs who made the team. A college that has a poor scrub team seldom has a successful first team, and a college that has a powerful scrub eleven can hold its prestige year after year with little danger of being beaten. While it is true that a man's period of service on the scrubs is sort of an apprenticeship which he must serve before he can ever make the Varsity, and the scrub's glory is yet to come, it is not quite fair that during this embryonic period of his football career he should be held as insignificant as "the straw man in the old man's back yard."

MAJORS and MINORS

Eugene Neubauer now represents THE DAILY MAROON in divinity circles.

Tuesday night Mrs. Reynolds entertained a number of the new girls of Nancy Foster Hall.

The engagement of Miss Bessie Fralick, sister-in-law of Professor S. H. Clark, to Adolph Jahn, of the engraving firm of Jahn & Ollier, has been announced.

Mr. Robert Murray celebrated his birthday last Sunday with a dinner party at his home in Tracy. Those present were Mr. Stiness, Mr. Wellington, Mr. McNair and Mr. Gridley.

The marriage of John Preston Mentzer, '96, a member of Chi Psi Fraternity, to Miss Mary Alexander, daughter of Senator John S. Alexander, of Marion, Iowa, has been announced.

All students are invited to attend the Missionary rally to be held Friday at 7:30 in Cobb Chapel. The meeting promises to be most interesting. Mr. Arthur Rugh, of New York, will speak and Dean Butler will preside.

Harry I. Raymond, Jr., and A. J. Hopkins, Jr., who recently returned from the Philippines on the cholera-infested transport Sherman, arrived in Chicago yesterday and will take up their University work Monday. Fifty days were spent on their return trip. Half of this time was spent in quarantine.

The Rev. Cleland B. McAfee, Pastor of the Forty-first Street Presbyterian Church, will address the Young Women Student's Christian League Sunday, October 26, at 4 P. M. in Haskell Assembly Hall. Dr. McAfee was pronounced the most enjoyable and popular speaker at Lake Geneva this summer by the 550 girls who heard him.

The entertainment committee of the Woman's Union met yesterday afternoon to consider plans for the coming year. They have twenty-eight meetings to provide for, and are hoping to make each of the afternoons successful in its way. From time to time they expect to have distinguished guests with them, and on other days they plan to have members of the faculty whom it will be interesting for the students to meet. Each of the houses is to have a day, as will also the junior and senior colleges. Then there will be musical programs, perhaps a play and other entertainments of interest. Yesterday afternoon a very pleasant reception was held for Mrs. Wooley. Next Wednesday the Union will entertain all the children of the faculty who are between the ages of 3 and 10.

DIVINITY NOTES

Officers for the divinity section of the Y. M. C. A. were elected yesterday as follows:

Vice-president, A. F. Purkiss; secretary-treasurer, Edwin Simpson; chairman on membership, T. W. Noon; chairman of Christian work, C. M. Dinsmoore; chairman on devotional, E. N. Bell. Part will hold office for a year and part for six months.

The night edition of yesterday's Chicago American contained a report of interviews with several of the students in theology. The matter at issue was a sentiment in President Harper's address delivered at the inauguration of Dr. George.

Professor Moncrief's recent book on church history is meeting with such favor that a second edition is soon to be issued.

The New Testament Club will begin its year's work tomorrow evening by organization at the home of Dean Mathews.

SEPARATE INSTRUCTION PLAN ADOPTED

Miss Theresa Hirsch, '00, secretary of the Chicago Alumnae Association of the U. of C. Arguments against segregation, pointedly stated in the second page of the same letter were:

1. Separation of sexes instead of relieving any of the supposed difficulties of coeducation would really aggravate them. It does not affect the problem where it is serious, namely: on the social side, but it does withdraw its essential safeguard, intellectual association in the class-room.

2. It would be very expensive to administer, requiring a duplication or triplication of work. Even if large funds are available, they might better be put into an expansion of work already started.

3. The development of the professional schools, men's gymnasium, clubhouse, etc., will attract, relatively, larger numbers of men than of women, and will serve to obviate any danger of feminizing the institution. In any case, if there is danger of too many women, it would better be got at directly, by limiting the number or per cent, instead of indirectly.

4. It is a violation of good faith with the public, who have understood this to be a distinctly coeducational institution, and not one of the annex type. The situation is now very different from what it was originally. At the outset it was open to the University to adopt whatever policy it saw fit, but having adopted a fundamental policy, it is a pledge to the public which should not be withdrawn without more serious reasons than have as yet been presented.

5. It can only harm the University both within and without to raise the sex issue, quite apart from the merits of the question. The public is exceedingly sensitive on this point, as it is, for example, on the labor issue; and it can only antagonize and alienate people for the University needlessly to precipitate discussion of the sex question and discussion concerning the attitude of the University toward the rights of women.

6. There are very great difficulties of administration.

7. It will be interpreted everywhere, whether so intended or not, as a blow against coeducation, and as an evidence of its partial failure where it had been tried under favorable auspices. Only the most serious reasons could justify the University in doing anything which could be interpreted as a blow at the higher education of women.

8. It is an unjustified reflection upon the conduct of the young men and women in the colleges. This action will be taken by the public as an evidence that their conduct has been either so silly or so immoral as to require this drastic remedy. No facts exist to justify any such imputation, and yet this inference will inevitably be drawn.
