PROFS' DARING ESCAPE

The Old Man and Dr. Thatcher
Climb to Freedom over
Marshall Field Fence

A Ladder, the Shanty, and Six Reporters aid in Rescue

Mr. Stagg, Dr. Thatcher, and six newspaper reporters have a bone to pick with someone.

It may be "Jhimmy," it may be "Tommy," or it may be some one else but at any rate some one did it and did it bad, too. The old man is hot on the offender's trail. No doubt the culprit will be shadowed before sunset.

"But what happened?" some may ask. "What is this mystery?"

To reply shortly—that is not generally known. If you see Mr. Stagg he will probably tell you very shortly, "Nothing very serious." If you go Dr. Thatcher, he will in all probability blush a little and say, "O no, nothing at all—a mere incident." But if, on the other hand, you approach a certain "Johnny-on-the-spot"—the only original pipe-dreamer—and jolly him along, he will, without a single doubt, tell you the following little story:

"Practice quit at six thirty and it was long after dark when the players left the field for the 'gym.' The six of us waited, as usual, for our daily interview with the 'old man.' As he came out of the gate from the gridiron in company with Dr. Thatcher we immediately surrounded them and took them in tow."

"We gained all necessary information after about forty minutes of cross examination and we started to leave the field through the east gate, which was supposed to have been left open.

"But it was locked. We then retreated to the west gate, thinking that possibly this one might have been left insecure by mistake.

"Well, that one was locked too.

"Are we locked inside?" asked Dr. Thatcher.

"I think we are," replied the 'Old Man,' 'and no way to get out. We'll have to camp out sure.'

"We discussed the situation thoroughly, and after several futile attempts to knock a board off the fence, several of the reporters were on the point of breaking into Mrs. Ingham's shanty. Some were for 'shinnying' over the fence, but our esteemed athletic 'Prof' pointed out the difficulty. There were too many barbed wires.

"The situation began to take a very demoralizing aspect. It was nearly seven, and the smell of the luscious porterhouses began to waft over from the training table in Hitchcock.

"Suddenly an idea seized one of the crowd. Why not get a ladder and climb up on top of Mrs. Ingham's shanty, and from there over?

"A freshman was dispatched to hunt for a ladder and he soon returned with one. Professor Stagg led the way up the ladder. Dr. Thatcher ascended with dignity and the rest of us followed. We drew up the ladder and let her down on the outside. There were eight of us on the roof of Mrs. Ingham's little kitchen annex at one time and it was pretty shaky.

"Mr. Stagg almost got tangled in the five strands of wire—his own invention for keeping the 'kids' out—but he was squeezed through cautiously with the aid of Ben Lee. Prof. Thatcher proved too large to slide between the wires, and we thought at first we should have to leave him on the roof all night. But the professor made himself equal to the occasion and the rest of us followed."

Mrs. Rockefeller, Sr., Here

Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Sr., and her sister, Miss Spelman, were the guests of President Harper at luncheon today. They are in Chicago visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. McCormick.

WOMEN PLAN ATHLETICS

Miss Dudley Will Secure Temporary Quarters Soon—Innovations to Be Made—Golf and English Games to Be Introduced

Plans for the women's athletic work are still indefinite. Not even a church basement is at present at their disposal. Miss Dudley, however, who has the matter in charge, hopes to secure quarters soon, and can then arrange for the outdoor work to commence immediately. As soon as the new Gymnasium Building, now being erected near the School of Education, is completed, the work will begin.

Regular rowing classes and basketball and hockey teams have proven quite popular with the girls, and in addition Miss Dudley is planning to have golf teams this fall and, if possible, a golf tournament in the spring. All girls are eligible, and the indications are most favorable for a good graduate team in addition to the junior and senior teams.

In the winter quarter the basketball will be continued indoors, together with indoor baseball teams and fencing classes.

Innovations in the women's athletics of the University will be introduced with the opening of outdoor work in the spring. "Hoopball" and "barbeball," games popular in England, will be features of the training. Cricket, hockey, and rowing teams, as has been the custom, will again be formed in the spring months. The women directors, with Miss Dudley as leader, expect the earnest cooperation of the girls. With this interest shown, success will crown the efforts of the directors and participants.

One of the most urgent needs of the girls at present is a small house on the field which will furnish dressing room and shower baths, as their gymnasium is much too far away to be used in connection with the field work. This structure will probably be erected on one corner of the field in the immediate future.

STUDENT CLUB PLANS

Prof. Thompson Brings Back Many New Ideas from Eastern Trip—Opening Early in April

The affairs of the student club house now in construction are being directed by a committee whose principal duty at present consists of collecting ideas from other similar institutions and developing a scheme of management by which their mistakes and errors may be avoided. During the summer Prof. Thompson, the chairman of the committee, has been traveling through the East, and has had an excellent opportunity to observe the clubs in a number of eastern colleges. He reports a particularly minute and profitable inspection of the Harvard Union, and has received many valuable ideas and suggestions from one of its trustees.

The architects are steadily pushing ahead with their work, and will have the building ready for partitions during the winter. In the meantime it rests with the committee to complete the arrangements for partitions and select the furniture, subject to the approval of a committee to be appointed. The building is to be turned over by April 1.

International Students' Congress

The third biennial International Congress of Students was held in Buda-Pest, Hungary, September 24 to October 1. The object of the congress was to discuss problems affecting all students.

GYM NEARING COMPLETION

Elegant New Building to be Opened February First—Arrival of New Material Causes Work to Be Rushed

The Bartlett gymnasium will probably be ready by Feb. 1, 1903. This was the statement made today in the office of the architect for our $250,000 Gym to be located on Marshall Field. The massive walls completed to the second floor and the net work of great steel girders within give little evidence that the enormous work can be accomplished at that date. A delay in the steel shipments forced a suspension of operations during the summer months. With the supply at hand gangs of men are rushing the arrangement of the interior frame work. From the air of bustle and hurry about the contractor's and architect's office there seems reason to believe that the athlete's new home will be ready by the middle of the winter quarter.

WOMEN NOT FRIGHTENED

Threat of Segregation in Junior College Has Little Effect on Incoming Students

The long discussion which has been under way during the past year in regard to the separation of the men and women students in the Junior Colleges seems to have excited the curiosity of the gentler sex. Possibly this curiosity has impelled them to enter the University in larger numbers than ever before in order to find out how it will feel to be segregated if the plan goes through.

Almost all of the women who were here before are back, and the entering class numbers more co-instructionists than any class since the beginning of the institution.

Last year the total number of women in the Junior Colleges was 385, which was about 60 per cent. of the total registration. This year the number of girls in the entering class is nearly 300 at present, which is nearly 70 per cent. of the freshman registration.

Many of the women say that they have returned this year just to prove that the threat of separate instruction could not scare them away.

Y. M. C. A. HOUSEWARMING

The New Headquarters in Snell Hall will be Formally Opened Tuesday Evening. All Students Invited

With a housewarming next Tuesday night the new Y. M. C. A. headquarters in Snell Hall will be formally opened. The association has secured Snell Hall for its home. From now on they will aim to make it a center of good fellowship for all students of the University.

Every room in the hall is occupied by Y. M. C. A. men and friends of the association. The head of the house, who has just been selected, is A. R. Hatton, a graduate student in the Political Science Department.

Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock the association will give a reception for the new students. The men from Hitchcock are expected to join in and it is intended to make the affair an opportunity for the freshmen to meet and get acquainted with the older students. Freshmen and those who are not freshmen are cordially invited to be present for a good time.

KNOX GAME CRITICAL

Telegram From Galesburg to Reserve Section for Knox Rooters

Maroon Colors Will Float From East Bleachers Tomorrow

Tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 on Marshall Field we play our first important game. It will be the first game with college color and the first in which there is any doubt of our winning. We should win, but the scrappy Knox men will give us a hard game. Last night Director Stagg received a telegram asking him to reserve a special section for the Know rooters. They expect to bring a large number, several hundred rooters, with them. This looks as if they expect to win or at least to make a strong showing. They will be located in the west bleachers.

We must not be outdone in the rooting, with the game on our home grounds. Chicago rooters will gather in the east bleachers. The rooting will be ably led by Allan Burns, the enthusiastic divinity student, who has been our cheerleader for the last few years. Let us gather together tomorrow under his leadership and help the team win. This is the first opportunity this year to use our voices to help our Alma Mater. Every one wear plenty of color and make the east bleachers one mass of maroon. Beginning Monday let us practice rooting on the Campus, at the 10:30 hour, and show the new students what Chicago spirit is, and give them an opportunity to learn the yell.

The players, feel that with the Knox game out of the way the chances for a successful season will be excellent. But if we should have any mishap tomorrow it would seriously affect our prospects. The situation is critical, and everyone who can should help the team by loyal support.

The lineup for tomorrow's game is as follows:

CHICAGO	KNOX
Ellsworth.....Center.....Howell
R. Maxwell.....Right Guard.....Martin
Farr.....Right Tackle.....Ewing
Catlin.....Right End.....Montgomery
L. Maxwell.....Quarter Back.....Grogan
Bezdek.....Full Back.....Wilson
Jennison.....Right Half Back....Hopkins

At 2 o'clock, before the Knox game, the scrubs will play the South Division High School team. The scrubs will be divided into two teams, each team to play one-half. The line-up of the two teams will be as follows:

FIRST TEAM.	SECOND TEAM.
W. Magee.....Left end.....Mefford
Burroughs.....Left tackle.....Tripp
Hall.....Center.....Walsworth
Parry.....Right guard.....Mincer
Thiel.....Right tackle.....Lodge
Embree.....Right end.....Hughes
F. Harper.....Quarter back.....Hitchcock
Morrison.....Left half back.....Linton
Harper.....Right half back.....Beech
Oliver.....Full back.....Barnes

Substitutes: Lambertson, Parker, Blair, Beebe, McPartlin, Staib, Enoch, Kahn.

Coach Stagg expected to have secret practice yesterday afternoon until 4:30, but the men came out so late that there was little time for early work, and the gates were left open. This afternoon, however, the gates will be closed. Stagg spent the hours of the practice before dark in putting his two elevens through a punting contest scrimmage. Ellsworth and Schnur were the punters. Schnur had a little better of the contest on the distance of punts.

EDITORIALS

Saturday at 3:30. That means you! you are the Varsity. And the Varsity has a date, secondary Root!!! to nothing for 3:30 Saturday. Only the chosen few can carry padded suits up and down the gridiron. But that is only a part of the battle with Knox. Every one can and should come and yell, wave C. banners, show the Maroon, and sing "Hot Time." In short, Root!

This is the first real game of the season. True, we have had a few practice scrimmages, but they were all played before college was opened for the fall quarter. Wednesday, the first day of the quarter, the papers said we had a game with Fort Sheridan. 53 to 0 is no index of the team's work or power, however, for our opponents, though most plucky, did not play football. Saturday, however, we are to meet Knox. Knox has the best team in their history. They are confident of success over the U. of C. Eleven or so college men from Knox will play inside the wires. Half of Galesburg will yell outside the wires. And that means that every U. of C. student must be there if we are to be heard. Our team has played the pre-season games in silence. That is work for eleven. Let us have our first critical game played to music. That will be fun.

Jimmy says we must win, but in order to play we must be supported. That means you must root. Garrey says the men are still green and have had no test as yet. Yet with proper encouragement we ought to make a fair showing. That means that we must root. Even our silent "old man of the C" has said we have a good team, we do not say a winning team. They are playing for the University. The University must recognize their work. That means that you must root.

You can see the game Saturday for 50 cents—a half dollar. But for a consideration of four dollars, "Butter" has generously agreed to give every student a book of red coupons containing his full autographs. That is good for every game to be played this season. You need one of those books. Get one before Saturday and you will be prepared to root for every game. And all the coming games will need your rooting.

Much depends on Saturday's game. Prove that you are one of the Varsity. Yes, this means all the women students also. Everybody come, and bring some one else with you. Wear the maroon, carry a megaphone and answer the cheer leader with the best rooting Chicago has ever seen.

In the confusion of first day comes a most vital action; namely, the Senior election by the various Council Leadership senior college divisions of their members on the council. The '03 members of the council, particularly, occupy important positions as leaders of the student body. It is radically "up to them" to initiate and control many of the most vital of our student activities. And most notable are their possibilities and duties in organization of various mass meetings.

It was erroneously stated in the last CAP AND GOWN that it is one of the duties of the University Marshals to organize mass meetings. The Marshals have not for several years, and should not organize the mass meetings, because they are honored appointees of the president. Under their direction the student meetings would then have an official tone. But the councilors are the direct elected representatives of the student body, and their action is unofficial, but for the undergraduate.

We wish to remind this new Senior Council and its officers of the good work done by the Senior College Council last fall, and to suggest that their success was the result of a very comprehensive organization and division into subcommittees, effected by George Young, '02, the chairman, at the very opening of the fall quarter.

The Council is assured of the aid and support of the entire student body.

GARGOYLETTES

It will be noticed that the Anatomy Department is offering a number of stiff courses.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Question: Will you please print in your admirable paper directions for climbing fences in a dignified manner? Also, what is a polite remark to make when one's clothing is caught and torn on a barb-wire fence?

A. A. S.

Answer: This question is a Staggerer and is referred to our subscribers.

O. J. T.: See above.

AN OPEN LETTER.

To the Editor of The Daily Maroon:

Dear Sir: I wish to publicly express my appreciation of the Harper Brand of Segregation. After trying it once I wonder how I ever got along without it. The muscles of my right arm have increased one inch and I soon expect to be able to lift the mortgage on the old farm. I use it before each meal and find that it is a most beneficial tonic. Hoping that my experience will induce others to try it, I am, sincerely,

DAISY CO-ED.

Observe that the Freshmen stand when they recite. This is good for them.

When Leon Mandel gave the money to build the new Assembly Hall was it a case of Mandolin or Mandel-out; and if the latter, does it render him eligible to membership in the glee club?

COMMUNICATIONS

To the Editor of The Daily Maroon:

In your statement regarding the degree to be conferred on completion of the graduate law course you spell the title Juris Doctor, and employ the letters J. D. for the abbreviation. The Latin language never knew the letter J (j), but always used I (i), while in modern times the j is employed. Very correctly the department of Latin in the University of Chicago follows the style of ancient Rome and does not recognize a letter j in the Latin alphabet. I suggest, therefore, that THE MAROON set the example of correct usage and print Iuris Doctor and I. D. Academic though the point may be, yet if it is correct to write I, and not J, it ought to be followed in actual practice.

"GRAD."

Unfortunately for the "Grad's" suggestion, President Harper favors the J. D.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR GOOD BAND

Much New Material in Sight—First Appearance Saturday at the Football Game

Prospects are good for a better band than the one of last year. Practically all of the old men are back. The most serious loss is that of Thatcher Guild, a former fellow in English, who took his master's degree this summer. He was the cornet soloist.

There is so much new and good material in sight that not only will the vacancies be filled, but the size of the band will be increased. Thirty-one men have already reported, and before the end of the season the band will probably number thirty-five.

The first appearance of the band will be informally at the football game with Knox on Saturday. In anticipation of the Roosevelt convocation it was planned to have several rehearsals this week, but when the convocation was temporarily given up these were abandoned.

Subscriptions for THE DAILY MAROON are now due.
