CRITICISM TOO SEVERE

No Cause to Be Gloomy Because of Showing Yesterday

Maroons Win from Cornell College, Score 21 to 0

The criticisms of the city papers and of many rooters who witnessed the game yesterday were decidedly too severe. It was said that we have poor material, that we are deficient in all branches of the game, that the play yesterday was miserable. Now this is not so. It is true that our men did not play as snappy a game as they should have, but there were very good reasons for this. In the first place Cornell College is a small institution and the men naturally went into the game feeling that they had an easy task before them, that it did not matter much how they played. They were not keyed up to the fighting point. It did not make any difference how large the score was. The rooters also did not seem to care. There was very little rooting to urge the men on to their best efforts. Now there should not be such listlessness, but it is easy to see how such a thing could come about. We need not imagine, however, that it will occur again. When there is a necessity for it, both players and rooters will come up to the mark. Anyone who saw the splendid stand we made on our five-yard line in the Knox game, or the rally in the second half, knows that our men have the stuff in them, and that the rooters will help out at the critical time.

Then the fact must be taken into consideration that Stagg kept two of his best men out of the game, and the others all felt that it was their duty to save themselves for the Purdue game this coming Saturday. That was the keynote of the situation. The work this week is not in preparation for Cornell, but for Purdue. One other thing may have had its effect: The men have been worked very hard this year. This may have made them a trifle stale, or at least have taken the ginger out of them. It is Stagg's policy to work the men hard at the beginning of the season, so as to get them hardened, and so that there may be less hard work later. Taking everything into consideration there was nothing to inspire the men yesterday. We need not feel gloomy or discouraged. Our material is good, though a little inexperienced our men are not deficient in knowledge of the game; and we can expect good work from them.

Although the team work was rather poor, we have no good reason to be at all pessimistic in regard to future games. The individual work of some of the men was at times excellent and in certain instances the new players showed that they had the true foot-ball knack. Bezdek especially distinguished himself at right-half by making several good gains, among which was a very pretty 25-yard run. Another new man who shows up well is Schnur, who took Sheldon's place at left-half near the end of the game. His hurdling and dodging run of 40 yards was almost sensational. Sheldon's fumbling of easy punts was somewhat offset by his 17-yard gain, in the first part of the game. Beyond this his playing was not of the best. The individual work of our ends, Speik and Ivison, in running down the field on punts was encouraging. Several times they downed their man in his tracks. Catlin, too, displayed skill at full-back—both on defense and offense.

But the team work was very ragged,

SONGS FOR MASS MEETING TOMORROW MORNING

When Jimmy Goes Thru' the Line
(Tune: "When Johnny Comes Marching Home.")

W. M. GARLICK, '03.

When Jimmy goes through the line again,
We'll yell, hurrab!
Nine hearty 'rahs we'll give him then
We'll yell, hurrab!
Chicago's Jim is bound to win
Our boys are always back of him.
And we'll all feel gay, when Jimmy goes through the line. (Repeat.)

2.

When Jimmy goes through the line again,
Rip 'em up, Rip 'em up!
The Quaker men will feel him then
Rip 'em up, Rip 'em up!
Our Jim will take the ball with him—
The boys will make a hole to go in
And we'll all feel gay, when Jimmy goes through the line.

3.

There only remains five yards to gain,
Touchdown, touchdown!
We'll let our yell go forth again,
Touchdown, touchdown!
The ball is passed! Look, there he goes,
Behind the posts his tow-hair flows,
And we'll all feel gay, when Jimmy has won the game.

Come now all you, you Purdue men,
Ha! Ha! Ha! Ha!
You're beat quite fair by Jimmy again,
Ha! Ha! Ha! Ha!
Now run along and get some men
Who know the game; then play again.
And we'll all feel gay, when our Boys have won the game.
(The Chicago yell.)

A rousing mass meeting will be held in Kent Theater tomorrow (Friday) morning at 10:30. The object will be to show our new football men that the student-body will stand behind them in our hard up-hill game with Purdue Saturday afternoon. Students are requested to clip these songs and save them for use at the games, and the Weekly Football Sings, which will be held Friday forenoons throughout the season.

TO TEACH LOCAL CHINESE

Student Volunteers in University Organize Mission for Oriental Children

Chinese living in close proximity to the University, will soon be invited to attend a Chinese mission. Its location will be at the corner of Fifty-eighth street and Drexel avenue, in the Hygeia dining-rooms.

Mr. Hass, of the divinity school, is one of the chief promoters. A Chinese convert from a-down town mission will assist in the work. More definite plans will be announced later.

FROLIC FOR THE FRESHMEN

Second Annual Affair to be Held in Foster Saturday Night

All the women of the University, and especially that class known as freshmen, are invited to attend the second annual "Freshmen Frolic", Saturday night, October 11, at 7:30. The affair is purely social and is given under the auspices of the Woman's Students' Christian League. Foster Hall has kindly thrown open its doors for the occasion, and a good time is promised. A splendid opportunity will be afforded for the new girls to meet the old ones. Come, Freshmen, all of you, and bring all of your freshman friends. The upper-classmen, or rather upper-class women, will do the rest.

'05 MEDICS ELECT OFFICERS

This afternoon at 1:00 '05 Medics held a class meeting. The officers elected were:

President—Mr. Padgett.
Vice-President—Mr. Brown.
Secretary—Miss Little.
Treasurer—Mr. Klick.

Woman's Union at Home

The Woman's Union gave an informal reception yesterday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:00 at the Union's parlors, Fifty-seventh street and Lexington avenue. Miss Talbot, president of the club, was assisted in receiving by a number of the ladies of the faculty.

Maroon, Maroon, Maroon

(Tune: "Coon, Coon, Coon.")

H. G. LOZIER, '94

Go 'way back from the Midway
On Marshall Field sit down!
And watch Chicago's kickers
Kick a hole plum through the town.
For when they don the mole-skins
In the Old Man's big back yard
Look out for the boys of the old Maroon
Play hard—hard—hard!

CHORUS.

Maroon—Maroon—Maroon,
There's a whole lot in a name.
Maroon—Maroon—Maroon,
Come play your good old game.
Maroon—Maroon—Maroon,
Get right up on your toes
And show the Purdue players*
How Chicago goes!

The Co-ed's a darned good fellow,
But a better chap is he
Who fights for Alma Mater
And wins a great big "C,"
So tackle low, Chicago!
Make holes both long and large.
Go round the end, go through the line
And charge—Charge—CHARGE!

*Illinoians—
Michigananders—Minnehaas.

(Tune: "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, the Boys are Marching.")

Biff! Boom! Bang! The boys go bumping
Down toward Purdue's old goal;
And beneath the old Maroon we will sing a happy
tune,
As we put Purdue into a great big hole.

DEBATE CANDIDATES APPEAR

Enthusiastic Response to Mr. Chandler's Call for Men to Meet Michigan

More than fifty debators met this morning in Cobb to arouse enthusiasm for the Michigan-Chicago debate.

The meeting was called by Mr. Chandler, who has devoted much attention to the candidates this fall. Professor Blanchard and Professor Clark also spoke.

In his remarks Mr. Chandler said that he thought every U. of C. man owed a tribute to the University, and those that were not cut out for athletics or were not prominent in other circles, should try for the debating team.

Professor Blanchard emphasized Mr. Chandler's statement. He was well pleased with the showing made. Professor Clark stated that one thousand students ought to be present at the preliminaries.

Six hundred and seventy dollars are to be divided among the six in the Michigan debate, and this, at least, ought have some inducement to the backward, regardless of the honor and training to be considered.

LAKE VIEW WOMEN PROTEST

Segregation Attacked by Woman's Club
—Resolution Sent to Trustees of the University

The Lake View Woman's Club made a protest against segregation in the University of Chicago at their meeting yesterday. Five women of the club voted against the resolution, the remainder supporting it enthusiastically. It was as follows:

"The members of the Lake View Woman's Club, believing a measure favoring segregation, now before the trustees of the University of Chicago, would be a direct blow at the women and detrimental to the best interests of the University, do respectfully but energetically protest against its passage."

A copy of the resolution was forwarded to the board of trustees of the University.

TO WIN MAROON STARS

Hustlers Making Reportorial Staff Will Get Emblems Temporarily.

Reporters Earning Membership On Board of Editors to Keep Them.

News hustlers who win places on THE DAILY MAROON staff of reporters, and, later, reporters who win places on the board of editors for next year, are to receive badges of distinction. The board of editors has appointed a committee to secure samples of a five-pointed enamel star in the University color. This emblem is to be in the form of a button for wear on the lapel of the coat by the men, and a pin for young women.

The board has decided that the staff of reporters shall number twelve, at least two of whom shall be women students. The period of competition and the term of office for the reportorial staff shall be one quarter. But the period of competition for the board and the term of office on the board shall be one entire year.

Thus the hustlers who win their places on the staff by the end of the autumn quarter will be sure to serve as reporters during the winter quarter; but during that quarter will have to compete with all hustlers in order to hold their places on the staff.

This competition will go on quarter by quarter. Then from all the reporters of the entire year and the editors eligible to hold over, the merit committee of the board will choose the board for the next year.

The reporters will be permitted to wear the maroon star only temporarily, during their term of office. When a reporter makes the board he will win his star and can keep it permanently. Then the continuity of THE DAILY MAROON as an institution will be maintained by the holding of an annual social gathering for all the wearers of the maroon star.

Not only the men, but any women students are eligible to competition for a regular place on the board, which would mean the assuming of financial responsibility in case of a deficit during the year of office. But the organizers have wished to make absolutely sure of having the women represented, and so have elected to appointment two women editors.

The limit for the men reporters is placed at a maximum of ten, but ten men will not be elected unless ten merit the positions. However, gathering news is a more difficult task for women than for men, because, relatively, the men have access to a larger news field. Therefore, two women reporters will be elected every quarter to assure representation.

The number of candidates for the staff has been gratifying. Those who sent their names to the managing editor and have not yet reported at THE MAROON office, are requested to see the news editor and athletic editor, who will give them assignments.

EDITORIALS

Subscribers who have changed their addresses inform THE DAILY MAROON at once.

It is well to remind the students of the University that a monthly literary magazine will be published this year. It will be the purpose of the Desired editors to publish a magazine truly representative of the best literary talent in the University. In order that this may be accomplished it will be necessary for the students to do their part. They can best do this by submitting to the editors any material in hand that may be of literary merit. If you are too modest to decide this matter, submit your manuscript, and allow the editors to decide on its merits.

Copy for the first issue should be in the hands of the editors before Monday evening. Office hours will be kept from 9 to 10 Saturday, during which time prospective contributors are urged to visit THE MAROON office.

Possibly the great body of incoming students is rather slow to perceive the all inspiring loyalty which governs and controls our student activities. In fact, we can hardly expect them to fully realize what a unified community they have entered in their two short weeks of university life. We doubt if even those new men who have been so active on the gridiron this fall realize what a trust and confidence is put in them when they enter a game, and what an enviable reputation we put in their keeping.

Our University differs from most other universities and colleges in that we are in the heart of a big city, where it is possible to find more elevating amusement than the ordinary class fights and color rushes which make up a large part of student recreation in smaller college towns. And this happy circumstance has caused a different and more aesthetic college patriotism to originate amongst us. Possibly we do not surround ourselves with such bloody and barbaric expressions of loyalty as may be found in many other colleges, but nevertheless our feelings are as deep and heartfelt as any traditions of loyalty which you may hear from other colleges. Our great body of alumni, students and professors, watch over our progress and welfare with the most interested enthusiasm, and they are sympathetically bound up with every student enterprise heart and soul. Let us hope that the new students will not be long in finding the subtle, all-powerful bond of sympathy and unity which binds us all together and that it may ever grow stronger and more impressive with them.

Our expressions of this united loyalty must be timely. Now is the time for all new students to join in a Chicago rally round the team.

GARGOYLES

Definitions heard in an English class:
"A corporation is a soulless body."

"A church is a social organization, which purports to care for the poor, downtrodden, and sinners."

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.
I have a poem on my hands. What shall I do with it?

MALCOLM GERVAIS DE ST. TREVOR.

That is a bad place to have a poem, but it might be worse. You can have it painlessly removed by Dr. Munyon, or, if you wish to treat it at home, try soaking it overnight in a strong solution of sulphuric acid.

A blue-blooded young man once went to college and blew in all his money. Then he blew out again and went home where he was blown up.

NEWS FROM THE UNIVERSITIES

The first issue of an alumni magazine at the University of Kansas is to appear some time this month.

With the advent of THE DAILY MAROON there are now fourteen college dailies in the United States.

Owing to the financial condition of the University of Nebraska, Chancellor E. Benjamin Andrews has refused an increase in salary from $5,000 to $6,000.

Professor Friedrich Hirth, of Munich, has been called to take charge of the new department of Chinese language, history, and literature, in Columbia University.

The University of Utah Chronicle: Ralph Ainsworth McBroom, of Indiana, is an instructor in English here this year. Mr. McBroom spent three years at Wabash College, Crawfordsville, Indiana. He then went to the University of Chicago, where, in 1900, he took his A. B. degree, and the year following, while doing post-graduate work, he held the Greek scholarship, which he won in competitive examination. He is a member of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity and was a prominent and active member of the University of Chicago Glee Club.

SUNDAY MORNING COURSES

President Harper's Popular Course a Unique U of C. Feature

The Sunday morning Bible classes which should have the special attention of old students as well as new are, for several reasons, a unique feature of our student life. The fact that a college student desires to study the Bible in the same honest spirit of investigation with which he carries on his work in other departments, is recognized, and none but the best instructors in the biblical department are chosen for this particular work.

The number of students registered has seldom fallen below one hundred each quarter. In the Old Testament, courses on the history of prophecy, the wisdom literature, the Psalms, or, upon some topic involving closer study of a smaller amount of material such as Isaiah 1-12, have been offered. In the New Testament, the work has alternated between the life of Christ and the life of Paul. In the present course upon the work of the Old Testament Priests, which President Harper is conducting, a new text book (1901-2) prepared by himself, is used as a basis for the study. In the New Testament the text book is the joint work of Professors Burton and Mathews, the latter of whom offers the course. These text books are the first of a contemplated series which will cover all grades of biblical study, from the most elementary work up to the college and professional school. In entering these classes, therefore, one is introduced to some of the greatest biblical teachers in the country, and to a series of text books which will in time take an important place in religious education. In addition to these considerations a fair university credit, amounting in four years to three majors, is received. Registration for these courses is made through the respective deans, and is open today and tomorrow without extra fee. Sunday morning, at 8:30 in Haskell, should see a large body of students ready for work.

so ragged, in fact, that Stagg made the men remain on the field for a half-hour's practice after the game.

After the kickoff Cornell started out with consistent gains of three to five yards. Starting on their 20-yd. line they pushed Chicago back to its 50-yd. line. At this point Chicago braced and forced Hayward of Cornell to kick. On the first two downs Chicago was unable to gain, thus forcing Ellsworth to kick. Cornell got the ball at the center of the field and Chicago held for downs. Chicago, now with straight backs and cross bucks by Catlin, Sheldon and Bezdek, and aided by a 25-yd. run by Bezdek, carried Ahlsweide over the line for the first touch-down.

After the next kickoff we kicked for practice. Cornell having lost ten yards on off-side, kicked, and with Sheldon's and Bezdek's 15-yd. runs, and with the continued gains of Catlin and Ahlsweide, our team pushed Catlin over for another touchdown. Ellsworth kicked goal. Before the half was over Hayward tried twice to make place kicks but failed.

In the second half we scored two more touchdowns. Our men started this half with more spirit than they had shown before in the game. The first touchdown was made by steady gains. The second came after the timer's warning. This touchdown was largely due to the 40-yd. run of Schinur, who had taken Jimmie's place. The game ended with a score of 21 to 0 in our favor. The line-up was as follows:

Chicago (21).	Cornell (0).

RUSH MEDIC NOTES

Dr. Dean Lewis of the Anatomy Department, and Dr. E. V. L. Brown, of Ophthalmology and Otology Departments, are back from Europe. This week they resume their work at the University and at Rush.

Dr. Bertram W. Sippy and Dr. Joseph A. Copps, of Medicine, have also recently returned from the continent.

Ralph W. Webs' Jr., of the Department of Chemistry, came over from the University yesterday.

The A. K. K. Fraternity has been enjoying a visit from its Grand President, Geo. Cook, M.D., of Dartmouth College. Dr. Cook is a prominent member and an active worker in the American Medical Association. He came west to institute a new chapter of A. K. K. in the Medical Department of the University of Ohio, at Columbus.

A reunion of A. K. K.'s of Northwestern, Physicians and Surgeons, and Rush was held Saturday night at the Physicians and Surgeons' House in honor of the fraternity's distinguished guest, Dr. Cook. An informal reception was given him at the Rush Chapter House Sunday afternoon.

Purdue is having secret practice daily in preparation for their contest with our team Saturday. The exact strength of the Purdue team could not be told by the game with De Pauw, but the spectators of that game seemed to be well pleased with the way Purdue tore up the De Pauw's line.

The Purdue rooters are having nightly drills in the art of making noise and as they say special trains will bring over 1000 students, there should be plenty of cheering from the west bleachers. Odds are being given by Purdue enthusiasts that Chicago will not score. The students have gone so far as to pass about a petition to pledge at least one-thousand of their number to attend the game.

The rooting in the game against Purdue on Saturday will be in charge of Messrs. Maloney, A. S. Henney, Jr., Dean Swift and R. H. Murray.

MAJORS and MINORS

Henry Waller, ex '04, has accepted a position on the Stock Exchange.

Edwin Boehmer, '03, and E. Vincent Quinby, '05, were last night initiated into Psi Upsilon.

J. Edward Foster, '03, is on the road for a New York firm. He expects to return later and take the law course.

Mr. Fred Bobo has left college and gone into business. He is now with the J. H. Lesser Wooleens and Trimmings Company.

L. Wilbur Messer, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., of Chicago, addressed the members of the University Y. M. C. A. in Haskell yesterday evening. He made a powerful appeal to all students to join the association, explaining the scope and value of its works.

Seats were broken, doors torn from hinges, and a dozen students bruised in a fight between the sophomore and freshmen classes at Northwestern University yesterday. The opposing classmen were separated by several members of the faculty before any one was seriously injured. Class emblems, balloons and bombardments, in which hymnbooks served as weapons, were features of the fray. The Sophs captured the Freshie's class president.

ACADEMY ITEMS

S. S. A. was defeated in the game with Harvard school yesterday.

Henn, who formerly played guard on the Lake High School team, is at the S. S. A., but has been unable to play on account of parental objections. This difficulty has now been overcome, and Henn will commence practice with the team today. He will make a valuable addition to the team, as it is in need of heavyweights. Dyer is also expected to commence practice at once.

Morgan Park beat Manual Training School yesterday by a score of 12-0. Ten and fifteen minute halves were played. The game was characterized by spirit and fast work, but the generalship was somewhat faulty. Fine work was done by Wrigley, Haight, Newburn and Oberg. The line-up:

quarter back, Abbot; right half back, Thompson; left half, Chisholm; full back, Jones,

Umpire—Keahan. Touchdowns—Rixner, Wrigley. Goals, Haight 2.

Capt. Cobb wasn't in the game, but will start in tomorrow.

Ernie Miller urges the fellows to sing in the mass meeting at the game.
